1. Introduction

The European Commission is committed to protect your personal data and to respect your privacy. The Commission collects and further processes personal data pursuant to Regulation \(EU\) 2018/1725 of the European Parliament and of the Council on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data by the Union institutions, bodies, offices and agencies and on the free movement of such data.

This privacy statement explains the reason for the processing of your personal data in the context of the SEMIC 2022 Conference taking place on 06 December 2022. It explains the way we collect, handle and ensure protection of all personal data provided, how that information is used and what rights you have in relation to your personal data. It also specifies the contact details of the responsible Data Controller with whom you may exercise your rights, the Data Protection Officer and the European Data Protection Supervisor.

The information in relation to this processing operation, undertaken by Unit D.2, Directorate-General for Informatics (DG DIGIT) of the European Commission, is presented below.

The objective of this hybrid event is to bring together stakeholders and practitioners to share best practices, lessons learned on how semantic interoperability ensures data exchange cross border and cross sector.

2. Why and how do we process your personal data?

Purpose of the processing operation: DG DIGIT Unit D.2, collects and further processes your personal data to provide you with information about the event (before, during and after) and communication, to process your application for participation in that event and to assist you with any follow-up activities related to SEMIC 2022.

Live web-streaming and audio-visual recording of the speakers, organisers and participants will take place during the event, as well as photographs of the speakers and panoramic photographs of participants and organisers will be taken. During the conference, the organiser will be recording the speakers of the plenary sessions, including any question and question-and-answer sessions or panel discussions. The recordings may be used for creation of post-event material and published on web pages in relation with the event (<https://semic2022.eu/homepage/>) and on the current Interoperable Europe page on JoinUp.

Webex is used as a video-conferencing tool only for the speakers, whereas participants will watch a livestream. Webex is approved by the European Data Protection Supervisor (EDPS) as a fully data compliant tool as visible here: <https://www.cisco.com/c/en/us/about/trust-center/gdpr.html#~tab-data-transfer>. Additionally, it is aligned with SCCs so the tool is fully compliant in terms of data retention. For more information, please consult: <https://trustportal.cisco.com/c/dam/r/ctp/docs/dataprotection/cisco-master-data-protection-agreement.pdf>

Online participants that do not wish to be part of the above web-streaming and recording/publishing activities will be informed of the recording and will have the possibility to switch off their camera. In-person participants that do not wish to be part of the above web-streaming and recording/publishing activities will receive an appropriate sticker. All participants have the possibility to withdraw their consent by sending an email to the organising team at DIGIT-INTEROPERABILITY@ec.europa.eu.

During the event, participants will be asked to take part in polls or quizzes or to give ideas or ask questions to the organisers. Personal data will be collected through the polling tool Sli.do, which is covered by the Record DPR-EC-06687.1.

This information will be collected anonymously, and the processing of personal data is only to ensure that participants have answered once to the question posed and to recuperate the session should there be technical issues. This information will be published in the context of the event at <https://semic2022.eu>.

The data of speakers that come to the event physically will be used by a third-party contractor (Uniglobe Travel) for the purpose of organising their travel and accommodation.

Your personal data will not be used for any automated decision-making including profiling.

DG DIGIT shall not be held accountable for any processing of personal data that you might carry out on your own initiative during or after the event.
